I VES ULHVELAND BREWERY, Condition of our Released Frieners at 111 Superior-St., Cleveland, O.

We learn from the Washington Chroniel of Sunday last, that a meeting of the Ohio Soldiers' Bellaf Association, held at No. 371 Sixth street, on Wednesday avening, a very nteresting report was read by Mr. J. R. Dodge, of his recent visit to Annapolis to ninister to the wants of our released prisoners rom Richmond, Virginia, which we subjoin:

REPORT OF A VISIT TO ANNAPOL'S. In accordance with instructions from the ive of our association, I visited Annap officen Wednesday last, furnished with a well filled trunk containing supplies of shirts, drawers, socks, towels and handkerchiefs, with some bedding, and charged with the mission of seeking out and ascertaining the condition and wants of the returned prison-ers from Richmond by the fiag-of-truce beat of the Thursday previous.

I found, of the whole number returned, about three-fourths of them still alive, some of them lying unconscious on the brink of the grave; others, for whom flickering and uncertain hopes of life were entertained; others emaciated and weakened from families. and exposure, or from the leftmence of wounds and starvation combined; while a compara-tively small remainder, such as had enjoyed he shelter of the tobucco warehouses small rations of poor bread and worm and-bean soup, had sufficient vitality to be about in the onjoyment of as much bealth as seemed ossible under the circumstances of their enfinement. onnament.

All presented the same statement of robery by rebels in authority, and violation of counties to return whatever of money had been taken—promises in no instances ful-filled, and evidently made from an innate tendency to lying, which added to profitable inreeny the totally useless gratuity of false-hood. In almost all cases of above, the insult was given by officers rather than privates. f the latter of whom many cases of kind-

On all sides an ardent expression of grati-tude was made for their escape from unen-durable confinement, and probably death; and a deep and universal anxiety was ex-pressed for some action on the part of the dovernment to secure the liberation of the thousands yet in Bichmond, and the amelioration of their condition while there, partic-niarly of these on Balle Island, supposed yet to number three thousand six hundred, ex-posed, with little food and light clothing, to the damp and the night frosts, without shelter, and mainly without fires. Indeed, Richmond, with its horrors, seemed yot to haunt their day-dreams like a nightmare. We extract from the list of prisoners

King street, Alexandria, is being re-New Orleans is perfectly clean.

[To the Cincinnati Commercial.] General Meredith has made a reply to he rebel Commissioner's late letter on the question of exchange of prisoners. The former, he says, would have been surprised at the contents of Guid's letter had be not previously been aware of his habit of in England, confirm the news that a new special pleading and perverting truth. Crisi is granted by the Court of Excheque General Meredith then says that in his in the case of the Alexandra. last interview the rebel Commissioner stated, distinctly and unequivocally, that he would make a declaration of exchange whenever he felt conscientiously that he had a right so to do, for the purpose of putting men in the field, and he made this tatement not only once, but two or three times. General Meredith then publishes two extracts from Ou'd's previous letter, and adds that the latter "arregates to the rebel Government and himself the sole right to make exchanges." Of course this Government, in a pros-perous condition, unlike the Confederacy, with men in superabundance to put into the field, would not declare men exchanged for that purpose: nor would a kee Surgeons, which is quite as great a high-toned, honorable gentieman, who has number as the Yankees hold. These will high-toned, honorable gentieman, who has number as the Yankees hold. Those will reserved to himself the right to declars exchanges, use that right, with the idea of putting men to the field. Yet it is well known that many officers and men captured at Vicksburg were in the battle of that the enemy were fortifying at winson, ed at Vicksburg were in the battle of that the enemy were fortifying at winson, but the rumor wants confirmation. We should not be surprised at any time, howsession, and claim as valid. You insist on the validity of paroles which I have nevr seen, and which you acknowledge have been accumulating for many months, on general orders of the United States Government. These orders announce general rules, based on the usages of war, but the cartel having been agreed upon, no order of either party could set aside its provisions. For instance, a commander, on being captured, might, under some circumstances, give paroles for himself and his command, without violating general orders, but unless parolling was done at City Point, or other named places, it would be in violation of the cartel. No exception could be taken to this course by the party granting parole because the validity of parols depends on strict compliance with the provisions of the cartel. Had such olaim been admitted the effect at Gettys urg would have been to give General Lee the privilege of placing his prisoners in Point, at our charge, a claim so manifestly The eighteen thousand paroles, which you claim as valid paroles given on battle-fields, often given in haste, by an enemy unable to take care of or receive them, are inform-al and invalid by the laws of war. Most paroles above mentioned were taken-by guerrillas, bushwhackers and detached commands in the West. No delivery was ever made, and no rolls have ever been forwarded. After copying the letter sent by Mr. Ludlow, the former Union Exchange Commissioner, to Onld, in my last, stating that Orders of our War Depart-ment, with cartel, provided that all prisners should be sent to a place of delivery therein specified, and no parcies or exchanges would be considered binding, except those speedily provided by cartel, permitting commanders of two opposing
